Mission Statement

The Interfaith Disabilities Network of Oregon (IDNO) activates the resources of faith communities to welcome, celebrate, and include the contributions of every person who lives with a disability.

A Non-Profit Organization

The Interfaith Disabilities Network of Oregon is a volunteer-based 501 (c) 3 non-profit organization which provides information, referrals, and materials to religious organizations and individuals to help assure acceptance and accommodations for people with disabilities.

IDNO meets monthly to plan activities, events, and community education. Meetings are generally held on the third Thursday of each month at 8:30 am. To join us at any of our meetings, contact us for location information or visit our website at www.interfaithdisabilities.org .

Activities

The Interfaith Disabilities Network of Oregon offers many community events, all of which are open to the public.

Recent activities include:

- Annual Community-Wide Disabilities Resource Fair
- Informational events with guest speakers
- Conferences and Workshops on mental illness, disabilities, and inclusion
- Panel discussions for clergy
- Resource listings on all areas of disabilities

Quarterly News

IDNO provides a quarterly online newsletter, available to you at no charge. The newsletter includes resources available in our community, state agencies, private organizations and individuals offering support to individuals and families, and local news about special needs.

Who We Serve

IDNO provides information to members of the community, including people with disabilities, clergy, congregational lay leaders, families of people with disabilities, and professional service providers.
